Distribution of Videocassettes

On this the first day of April 1993, IBC New York Inc. (IBC) and Michael Solomon Associates, Inc. (MSA) agree as follows:

In order to make the IBCC-produced set of three videocassettes on community relations and other contributions by Japanese affiliates in the U.S. available to organizations and individuals who will be interested in these materials and put them to the best use, (MSA) will prepare a customized mailing list that will include the following categories:

- Japan-related philanthropic organizations in the U.S.
- Major Japanese business and economics programs at American universities
- State economic development offices
- Selected chambers of commerce (focusing on cities and towns where Japanese affiliates have major operations)
- Japan Societies in the U.S.

A cover letter will be prepared for distribution together with each set of cassettes to briefly introduce the IBCC and the contents of the videocassettes and to explain the reason why they are being distributed.

All work for this project will be completed by August 31, 1993

The inclusive fee for this project, including planning, implementation and supervision of project, including writing of cover letter, researching of mailing list, liaison with IBC, distribution costs, etc. will be $5,000 (five thousand dollars), payable upon the completion of the project. It is understood that MSA will register with the Justice Department and carry out the necessary reporting procedures in connection with this project.
